NARRATIVE On 5/23/2025 at 1831 hours I was dispatched to 1631 US 50 in Stonelick Township, Clermont County, for an MVA with injuries. Dispatch notes advised that a 40 year old male, later identified as Bryan Biddle, was involved in an accident while driving a RZR behind the residence. I arrived on scene at 1834 hours and observed a Polaris RZR flipped on its side behind the residence. I further observed a female, identified as Ciara Tully, applying pressure to Bryan's head with a shirt. I approached Bryan and Ciara and observed that Bryan was still inside of the RZR but was standing up at this point. Bryan had a laceration to the top area of his head and a very large laceration to the outside of his left leg. Ciara advised that she is a nurse and had already used a belt as a tourniquet. Bryan was alert and conscious and was able to keep talking to me until EMS arrived on scene. I asked Bryan what had happened and he stated that he had took a turn too fast and flipped the RZR. Once EMS arrived on scene and accessed Bryan's injuries they requested for Air Care to respond to the scene. I spoke with two witnesses of the accident, William Gilkison and Joseph McMurray. Both parties advised they were following Bryan in a separate UTV, and that Bryan had sped up in the backyard and ended up turning too sharp causing the RZR to flip about 2-3 times.
