Upon my arrival at 1559 hours, I made contact with the operator, Mr. Brandon Isaac. Brandon advised that he was okay and refused EMS. Brandon explained to me that he was traveling west bound on SR 32. While merging from the right lane to the left lane he hit a bump in the roadway which caused him to lose control of the MC. The right side of the MC made contact with the roadway and slid towards the left shoulder of the roadway. I contacted the caller [REDACTED] who advised they were a passerby. The caller advised that Brandon was operating at a slow speed and with caution as he was getting onto SR 32 from the Main St on-ramp with the roadway being wet. While on SR 32 the back tire of the MC lifted as Brandon was merging from the right lane to the left lane as if he struck a bump in the roadway. Brandon advised that the MC belongs to his friend David Couch (IN OLN: [REDACTED] who allowed him to operate the MC. Upon making contact with David [REDACTED] he provided me with the insurance information. Brandon had a friend pick up the MC in a pick-up truck.
