NARRATIVE While On patrol I pulled up to Unit 1 who was in the middle of the front yard of 4843 Benton Rd (Taylor Residence) with his driver's side door open and smoke from the air bag deployed. Unit 1 was standing outside his vehicle with a small cut on his left eye and a small abrasion to his left wrist. Unit 1 stated he just left his cousin's house after spending the night. Unit 1 stated he was driving north bound on ST RT 132 going about 45 MPH and he took his eyes off the road to turn on his rear windshield wiper on, when he realized he there was a curve to the left coming up. Unit 1 ran straight through the curve hitting an arrow reflective sign, driving through the front yard of 4602 St RT 132 (Miller's Residence), hitting the culvert on the driveway, drove through the end of the driveway, crossing over ST RT 132 and through the front yard of Mr. Taylor, causing damage to the yard before coming to a stop. Total feet of 387 FT traveled out of control. EMS called to check Unit 1 injuries. Unit 1 mother arrived and refused transport to hospital. Damage done to the reflective sign and yard of the Millers. Unit 1 was disabled and towed by Danbury's Towing.
