NARRATIVE On September 12, 2023 at 1939 hours, I was dispatched to Old SR 32 just west of Hill Top Ln in Batavia Township for a single vehicle MVA without injuries. Upon my arrival, I observed a blue Lincoln sedan OH-KDF5114 occupied by 2 male subjects parked on the side of the road of the WB lane. I made contact with the driver identified as Mr. Anthony Kelch and his front seat passenger Kenneth Kelch (brother). Anthony and Kenneth advised they were not injured and stated they both were wearing their seat belt. Anthony explained to me that he was traveling WB down the hill on Old SR 32. Anthony advised he was traveling 45 MPH when he began hitting his breaks. Anthony indicated that his breaks "gave out" and he crossed the double yellow line striking the guard rail, causing his vehicle to spin 360 degrees. Anthony stated that he corrected the vehicle and settled on the shoulder of the WB lane. I observed debris all over the roadway and the front bumper under the guard rail. I observed severe damage to the front in of the vehicle. Danburry Towing arrived on scene and towed the vehicle away.
